

I am a subscriber to a small, local ISP. I'm surprised to learn that if BellSouth's petition is granted, ISP's like my own would find it difficult to compete against the larger players from whom they typically have to lease broadband connections. Please continue to regulate broadband service.

Sincerely,
John Muse